INCOMING FOURTH GRADE

June 2024

Dear Parents,

Each year as we start the summer vacation, many parents ask for ideas and suggestions as to what to do with their child over summer vacation. All young people experience learning losses when they do not engage in educational activities during the summer. I have put together some websites and required reading lists to help your child grow and develop over this summer vacation.

For incoming fourth grade students, it is mandatory that they read 3 books this summer.

They are to choose their three books from the list provided.

In addition, each student is required to write one book review sheet for each of the three summer reading books. See attached sheet for directions.

Thank you for your time and HAVE FUN READING!!!!!!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Lisa Ciunci
