- ♥ Parents have agreed to have their child be educated in the Catholic faith and the practices of our Faith. (if the applicant is Catholic). Please notify the School Office of any concern.

Child Outreach Information (K only)

In order to make sure the students are ready to begin the Kindergarten program, we are asking that each parent have an initial screening through the free "Child Outreach" program in their own town. Parents please provide the results to St. Rocco School. Our Kindergarten teachers will also do additional observational screening when school begins in the fall.

Johnston – Please look in the Providence Journal and the Sun Rise the last two weeks of January for information regarding child screening.

Cranston – Child Outreach takes place from September through May.

Please call 270-8337, Monday thru Friday, to schedule an appointment.

Providence – Please call 456-9137 for information regarding child screening.

Selection of Applicants

- ♥ A complete application must be submitted to the school for review and acceptance.
- ♥ Successful applicants will be accepted in the following priority order:
Siblings ~ St. Rocco Church Parishioners ~ Other
- ♥ All acceptances to St. Rocco School (every grade level) are conditional. Comprehensive school documentation is necessary to help determine appropriate placement for the students.
- ♥ All applicants will be notified by mail and/or phone call of the decision on the application.
- ♥ Once a student is accepted to St. Rocco School, non-compliance with parents'/guardians' commitment may result in referring the child to an alternate educational environment.

CHRIST is the reason for this school.
